

OUR FIRST RESPONDER FAMILY COLORING BOOK

Welcome to the First Responder Family coloring book. This booklet was created through the UCF RESTORES-2nd Alarm Project collaborative. Funding for the creation of this coloring book was supported in part by funding from the State of Florida Department of Children and Families (LH869) to UCF RESTORES at the University of Central Florida.

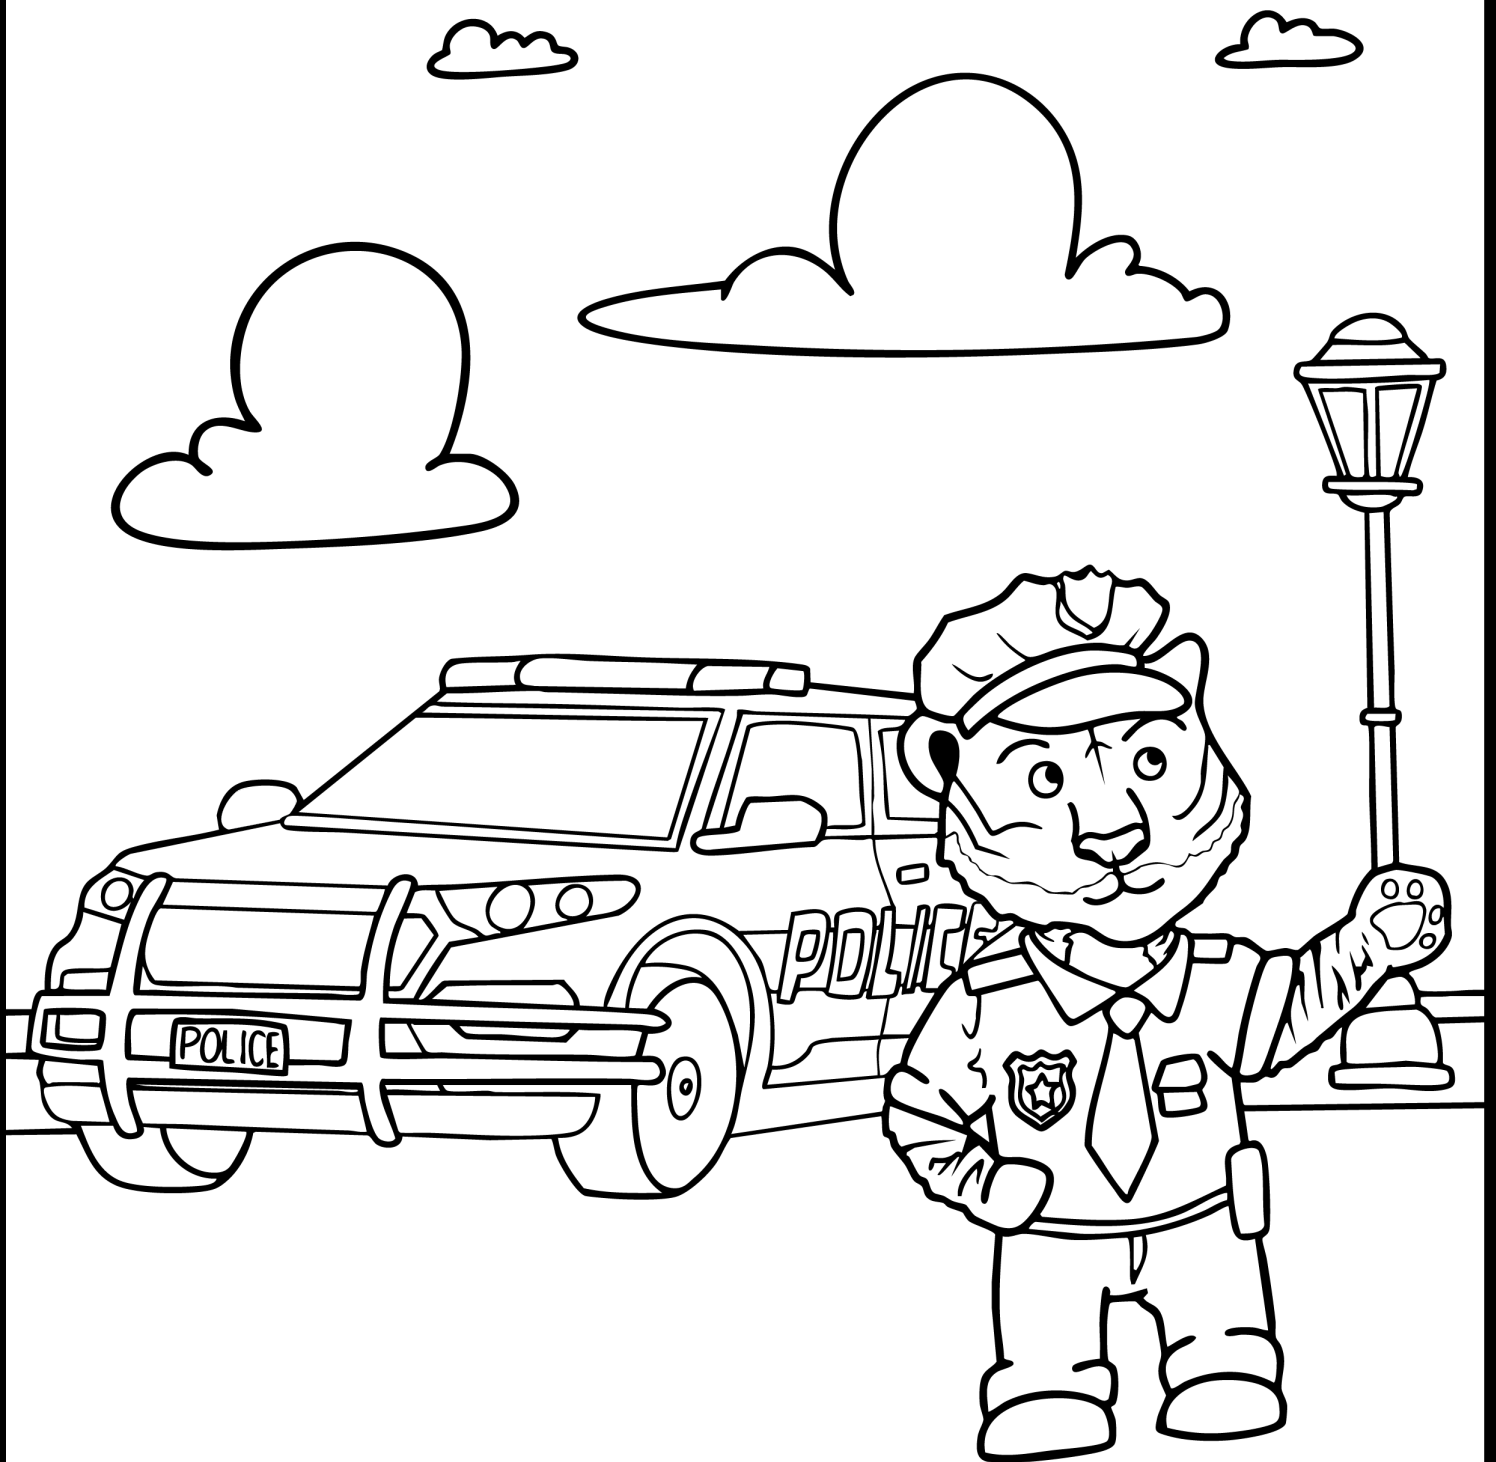

In addition to this booklet, more resources can be found at: ucfrestores.com/resources/first-responder-family or by scanning the QR code below.

My Daddy, Freddy Fox, is a firefighter. He helps people by putting out fires, helping in car accidents, and lending a hand when someone falls. I love visiting him at the fire station and sitting in the firetrucks. When Daddy is home, we cook, play outside, and read bedtime stories together. I'm so proud of my Daddy!

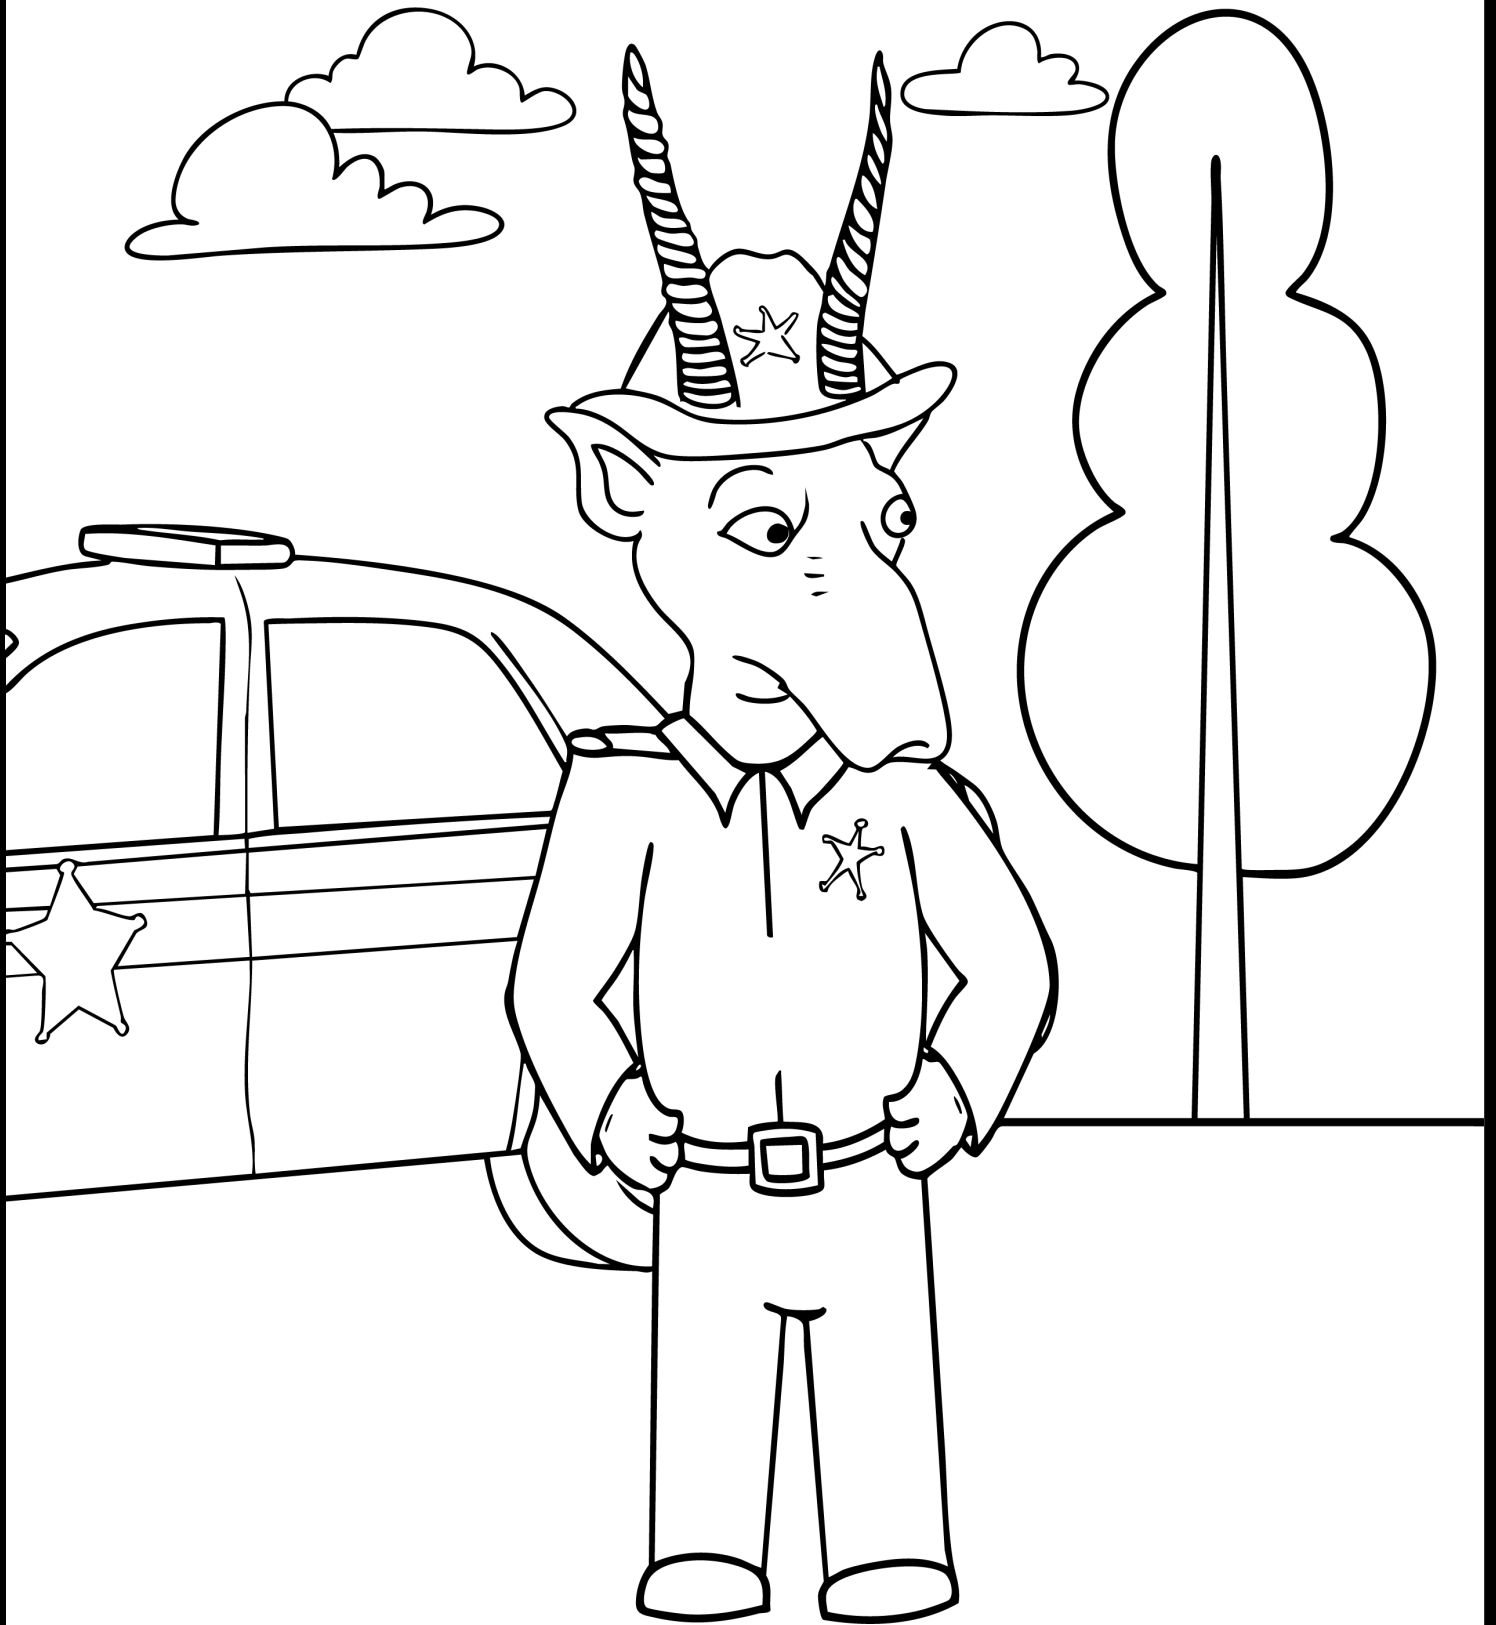

My Mommy, Tiger Temple, is a police officer. She helps keep everyone safe by making sure drivers follow the rules and helping people in accidents. She even checks on people when their families can't. When Mommy is home, we bake cookies and play soccer. I love hearing her sing lullabies at night. I'm so proud of my Mommy!

My Uncle Patrick Panda is a paramedic. He helps people who are hurt or sick by getting them safely to the hospital. When he visits, we play football, swim, and enjoy family cookouts. I'm so proud of my Uncle Patrick!

My Aunt Saiga Smith is a deputy sheriff. She helps keep neighborhoods and roads safe.
She loves painting with me and always wins at Cornhole during family BBQs. I'm so proud of my Aunt Saiga!

My big brother, Doggie'O, works in dispatch. He helps people by sending emergency teams where they're needed. At home, we play video games, go fishing, and explore the beach. I'm so proud of my big brother Doggie'O!

My big sister, Catty Cathy, is a correctional officer. She helps people by making sure they are safe and cared for. When she's home, we dance, sing, and play at the park. I'm so proud of my big sister Catty Cathy!
